Labor Council Favors Outsider for President

Avoid 'Yes-Men' Say Labor Men

An outsider is favored as president of San Jose State college by the San Jose Central Labor council because he would have "his hands free to handle without bias the problems that will face him when he assumes his office."

The council listed this as the fifth presidential qualification in a letter sent to Roy Simpson, state superintendent of public instruction. Simpson has asked citizens of the community to submit suggestions and qualifications for the office pending his appointment of a successor to Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, college president who will have served 25 years when he retires next summer.

The council states that it is "not confident that any man who has been part of the faculty or the administration during the past ten years can succeed in clearing up the sources of resentment and disaffection with the present faculty."

According to the council, the first qualification the new president should have is a sound philosophy of school administration, with the emphasis on faculty participation. He should not rely wholly on "yes-men" nor punish those who honestly disagree with him on matters of educational policy and administration.

He should understand the broad aim of education as training for complete citizenship and realize that specialization in college may lead to the defeat of this aim.

Finally, says the council, he should have the ability to maintain sound and balanced community relations and be "our contemporary in his general outlook on life."

"We oppose a man for the president of our college who thinks that in the field of morals, politics, business and labor, what was good enough for his grandfather is necessarily good for the students who come to this institution for an education that will fit them to live in our world of today," the council said.

U.N., Reds Tangle in Air Battle Near Manchuria

Tokyo—American B-29s and escorting jet fighters shot down or damaged 14 to 17 Communist jets yesterday in the biggest air battle of the Korean war just south of the Manchurian frontier.

One American Superfortress and a Thunderjet fighter were lost and several other B-29s damaged in the wild 250 to 280-plane battle over northwest Korea while ground fighting far to the south diminished in apparent anticipation of new truce talks.

Five Students Will Receive ROTC Honors

Five men have been appointed distinguished military students, Col. James J. Hea, commander of the Army ROTC unit, announced yesterday.

The five are Ivan Bland, Bill De Lapp, Oscar Herrgesell, Paul Murphy, and Joseph Richerts.

"We also have three holdovers from last year," Col. Hea said. They are Fred Davis, Herbert Frame, and Duane Miller. This makes a total of eight applicants for commissions in the regular army, he said.

Factors considered in selecting students for such awards are the student's record in the ROTC, his scholastic record throughout school and his extracurricular activities.

Of the eight recommended for commission, Col. Hea declared that he did not expect all of them to be accepted. "There were only five appointments made last year," he said, "and that was considered high."

Chief Justice Lloyd Lists Twenty-five On Friday's Ballot

Four students applied for the office of female sophomore justice before the 4:30 p.m. deadline yesterday, according to Harlow Lloyd, chief justice of Student Court.

"Candidates have been filed for all offices," Lloyd said. "Twenty-one petitions have been turned in and four more are to be completed. A total of 25 students will compete in the election Friday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.," he added.

According to Lloyd, the candidates and the offices they are seeking, as their names will appear on Friday's ballots, are as follows:

The Weather

I went out weather hunting last night in my gownless evening strap and ran into a strong-faced character with a heavy white beard idly drowning in a swamp.

"Oh!" said I, staring coyly with my bloodshot eyeballs. "You must be..."

"Yes! Yes! I am!" he shouted quietly and sank to the bottom. Squatting on the muddy bank I peered below the water and said "Please sir, will you tell me what the weather is to be today?"

Looking up from a boulder, he glared at me, bubbles rose from his lips and he warned:—

"There will be no change in temperature."

U.N. Anniversary Will Be Observed

DR. ROBERT SCALAPINO
... U.N. and the World Today

Dr. Scalapino Will Discuss U.N. Problems

The United Nations and the world today will be discussed by Dr. Robert Scalapino, associate professor of political science at the University of California at Berkeley, in a talk to students today at 11:30 a.m. in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

In commemoration of the sixth anniversary of the date on which the UN charter came into force, Dr. Scalapino will speak on "United Nations and a Divided World," according to Dr. William H. Poytress, head of the Social Science department.

Dr. Scalapino is an expert in the Far East, especially Japan, Dr. Poytress said. During the war he served as Japanese language officer in Navy intelligence.

Various articles on the Far East by Dr. Scalapino have appeared in "Foreign Policy Reports," "Far Eastern Survey" and "Foreign Policy Bulletin."

Dr. Scalapino is one of the outstanding young men in America in the political science field in the opinion of Miss Clara Hinze, assistant professor of geography; Dr. George G. Bruntz, associate professor of history and political science; and Dr. S. Laird Swagert, associate professor of political science.

"We are extremely fortunate to have Dr. Scalapino speak to us," said Miss Hinze. "He presents a well-organized opinion clearly. He has a sense of balance in his presentation."

"He is a forceful and enthusiastic speaker," said Dr. Bruntz, "and is especially good at answering questions."

Dr. Swagert pointed out that in a recent panel discussion on the Far East in San Francisco, Dr. Scalapino was the most impressive speaker.

According to Dr. Poytress, Dr. Scalapino will speak approximately half an hour and will answer questions the remaining twenty minutes of the period.

Today's program is the first in a series of programs to be presented by the lecture committee this quarter, Dr. Poytress added.

Dr. McKell Joins SJS Health Service

The services of Dr. David McKell have been secured by the College Health service in the absence of Dr. Theodore E. Cox, who became seriously ill two weeks ago, according to Miss Margaret M. Twombly, director of the Student Health service.

A resident of Saratoga, Dr. McKell received his BA degree from Stanford, and his M.D. degree from Harvard in 1938.

Dr. McKell, who serves from 9 a.m. to 12 noon at the Health office, said in reference to his present post, "I like the staff very much."

Friends of Dr. Cox, college physician for three years, report that he has improved while at Oak Knoll Naval hospital, according to Miss Twombly.

Candidates Report

All candidates for offices in Friday's election are requested to come to the Spartan Daily photo office, B35, before 2 p.m. today for the taking of campaign pictures.

Platform interviews also will be conducted by a member of the Spartan Daily staff. Candidates should come to the Daily office prepared to give the staff member all the necessary information.

ATO, DZ Earn Top Trophies At Greek Show

Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and Delta Zeta sorority were awarded the major trophies for the best skits of the All-Greek Variety show held Monday night, before members of 23 social organizations in Morris Dailey auditorium. The annual affair is sponsored by Theta Chi fraternity.

An enthusiastic audience received the original acts provided by the various groups with tremendous ovations. Highlight of the evening's entertainment was the presentation of the trophies by Dr. Stanley Benz, dean of men.

The Alpha Taus won for the men's group with their humorous interpretation of the story, "David and Bathsheba." Delta Zeta's presentation of a sextet, who sang of "College Romance," won for the best entertainment among the women's groups.

Placing second and third for the men's groups were Lambda Chi Alpha and Theta Xi fraternities, respectively. Alpha Phi and Kappe Alpha Theta took second and third place honors for the sororities.

Guest artist Tommy Pratt entertained the audience with his vocalization of "Shanghai," and "Wonder Why." Also featured on the program was a fraternity combo, "The Back House Five with Sears and Roebuck Sitting In," who played several dixieland numbers. Mary Braunstein was master of ceremonies for the evening.

The skits were judged by Dean of Men Stanley Benz, Mr. James Jacobs of the English department, and Mrs. Ruth McKenzie of the Speech and Drama department.

Candidates Meet Class Officers

Self-introductions by candidates for junior class offices were the main business at the junior council meeting held Monday afternoon.

Juniors running for offices in Friday's election include Len Cross and Ingrid Andersson, president; Philip Niederhoff and Marjorie Herzog, vice-president; Mary Lou Carli and Mary Flynn, treasurer; Carol Larson and Jill Iverson, secretary.

How's That Again?

A local employer called the Information office Friday.

"I want to report that the student I employed last week is very satisfactory," he said. "Give me External 278."

With a straight face and amused mind, Mrs. Kay Field, office worker, connected him with Mrs. Florence Cardoza, part-time placement director, at extension 278.

Women Footballers May Play Before S.C. Contest

A women's football game may precede the Santa Clara-San Jose State college game, Nov. 17, according to Jim Downs, publicity chairman for the Rally committee.

The game, in which a team of senior women would oppose a team composed of women from all other classes, must be approved by Miss Helen Dimmick, dean of women.

The female football game was proposed by Downs at an executive meeting of the Rally committee in the Student Union Monday afternoon. All members of the executive committee approved the plan.

The executives also made plans for a rally to be held in Morris Dailey auditorium Thursday at 7:30 p.m., and named 16 new members of the Rally committee.

New members, as submitted by Tom Mullan, chairman, are: Beatrice Aikens, Margie Watson, Frances Wilson, Connie Guilfoyle, Jackie D'Andrea, Teri Frederic, Lois Jorgensen, Betty Balon, Rowena Wilhide, Joan Harlan, Larri Grother, Virginia Cross, Mary Bettini, Carol Hotchkiss, Freeda Fichtner, and Jean Elwood.

Golden Raiders Work for Loyola's Don Klosterman

Bronzan Drills Gridders on Pass Defense

By BILL WELDY

Contact work resumed for members of the varsity football squad yesterday as the Spartan equipment finally completed its round-trip from Moscow, Idaho.

The Golden Raiders scrimmaged against the junior varsity eleven with Gibby Mendonsa highlighting the drill by making several fine runs. Jerry Hamilton handled the quarterback position for the first team.

Definitely out of the Loyola game are linebackers Dick Bondie and Bruce Halladay, and full-back Bob Amaral. Amaral re-injured his knee in the Idaho fracas and will be out for 10 days. Guard Vern Vallerkamp did not suit up yesterday due to aching ears which troubled him during the airplane trips to and from Moscow.

Frank Morris, who was allowed to return from Moscow via train because of his sinus trouble, had not arrived in San Jose as of yesterday afternoon.

Down Los Angeles way, Loyola coach, Jordan Olivar announced that he will be forced to do without the services of at least three stalwarts. Tackle Jack Menotti suffered a broken leg in the Santa Clara game and probably will be out for the rest of the season. Howard Lehman, also a tackle, suffered a concussion in the same game and is still hospitalized. The third wounded Lion is guard Maury Nipp who has an injured shoulder.

Coach Bob Bronzan will stress pass defense during the remainder of the week's workouts as Loyola's All-American candidate Don Klosterman will undoubtedly fill the air with aeriels Friday night.

Klosterman is currently the leading passer in the nation, while his favorite receiver, Fred Snyder, is third in national pass receiving statistics.

Lack of a running game has been the major weakness in the Lions' first four games, all of which have resulted in losses. Olivar's forces have bowed to San Diego Navy, COP, Florida and Santa Clara. Danny Seivert, Seivert, 170-lb. sophomore half-back, is the leading Lion runner. Seivert, along with several other sophomores, give Loyola a potential running game that may break loose anytime.

Spartan Jerry Perich, who only a few weeks ago was sent down to the J.V.'s, proved to be the strongest defensive man during the Idaho game. Perich will start along with Ray Poznekoff on the defensive flanks Friday night.

Another Spartan who looked good in the Idaho contest was George Porter, who probably will get the starting nod at one of the offensive tackles.

Tourney Deadline

Tennis Coach Ted Mumby announced that today is the last day to sign up for the fall quarter college tennis tournament. This afternoon at 3:30 o'clock is the deadline for all entries, Mumby emphasized.

Entry fee for the tourney, which is also a tryout for prospective varsity tennis material, is 50 cents. Official entry blanks can be obtained in the Men's gym.

SIDELINES

ROY HURLBERT

Rumors are rolling that Santa Clara and USF are on their last football legs this season.

Santa Clara and San Francisco are having one heck of a time with the high cost of football living, as are the other little guys in the game, particularly the Jesuit schools.

The Saturday Evening Post blast against football by the Reverend Hunter Guthrie of Georgetown university last week has everybody wondering about the schools who are walking the tightrope. Georgetown, mother school of the Jesuits, suspended the game last year because of too much emphasis and too much finance.

Santa Clara and USF are Jesuit institutions with the same money problems as Georgetown and the other small Jesuits, Holy Cross, Boston college, Marquette, Detroit, Fordham and Loyola of Los Angeles. All face a struggle if they are to emerge in football's survival of the richest.

No Money—No Team

As "major" teams, the Mission Men and the Dons operate on slim budgets and they are out to make money in order to continue the game. But both schools, to date, are losing money and they don't have Fort Knox to fall back on. In this "business of football" you either tickle the turnstiles or else cancel the show.

Santa Clara and USF are at the crossroads. Either one and maybe both could join the graveyard already populated by Nevada and St. Mary's. But we hardly think the Broncos will toss in the towel. Maybe the Dons, but not Santa Clara.

The Rev. Herman J. Hauck, S.J., president of Santa Clara university, has stated that the university is definitely not thinking of dropping the sport at this time, and that reports to the contrary are absurd. He added that now was not the time to consider the problem from the financial angle, but later, when an accurate summation of profits and losses could be made.

Dennis Heenan, Santa Clara athletic manager, admits the Broncos are having trouble making ends meet, but he doesn't foresee a funeral this year. He wants us to know Santa Clara isn't going to let their bumps this year sour them any. Next year, Heenan indicates, the Broncos will meet Tulane, Kansas, Stanford, California, among others. No softies, again. And Coach Dick Gallagher will have a stronger team with more experience and sprinkled with a good sophomore crop. Heenan expresses no pessimism.

No Drop Here

Santa Clara got its reputation for taking on the tough ones without batting an eye. They have spirit behind their football, the like of which you don't find at most colleges and universities. The game over there is more than a matter of counting game receipts. We don't think Santa Clara will fold up on the gridiron.

USF Coach and Athletic Director Joe Kuharich isn't so hopeful. The Dons don't draw much in San Francisco. Next year they'll be weaker than a wet cat and their box-office appeal should drop to great depths. Their present schedule doesn't compare with Santa Clara's for caliber, either. Kuharich's recruiting history on the Hill-top in landing Matson and others doesn't please too many prospective opponents.

In other words, USF has a bad reputation with the men who make the schedules, Kuharich appears to be pouring it on Don opponents this fall hoping to land a lucrative bowl bid. USF needs the dough badly and the publicity. In the long run, the Dons stand to lose more than the Broncos. If someone has to quit, it probably will be the boys from the city by the Golden Gate.

Five Intramural Games Are Scheduled In Fraternity-Independent Leagues

Third day action in intramural football finds five games scheduled in the independent and inter-fraternity leagues.

In today's independent loop play Delta Upsilon meets Chi Pi Sigma, and Tiajuana A.C. plays Kappa Tau. The first tilt is a struggle of first game winners while the latter pits the two losers. On the inter-fraternity ledger is Pi Kappa Alpha and Lambda Chi Alpha; Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Phi Sigma Kappa; and Theta Chi and Sigma Nu. All the first named clubs won their opening encounters last Monday. Pi Kappa Alpha, with a 30 to 0 rout of Phi Sigma Kappa tops the list.

Other Monday scores included: IFL—Sigma Alpha Epsilon 6, Sigma Nu 0; Theta Chi 7, Lambda Chi Alpha 6. Independent league—Delta Upsilon 15, Tiajuana A.C. 12; and Chi Pi Sigma 6, Kappa Tau 0.

Frosh Drop 13-3 Water Match

Palo Alto high school tacked the second straight loss on the San Jose State college freshman water polo team yesterday in the winners' pool, 13-3.

The strong peninsula prep school had a substantial 8 to 1 halftime advantage over the Spartan frosh club who now have a one win and three loss record. The frosh scoring was split among forwards Barry Schuttler, Gene Broderick, and Dave Flood.

The frosh meet Burlingame high in a return match this Friday afternoon in Spartan pool. San Jose won the first tilt 6 to 5, at Burlingame.

Newman Members Sponsor Mission

A mission for Catholic and non-Catholic students will be held Nov. 6, 7 and 8, according to Father John Duryea, chaplain of the Newman club, which will sponsor the mission.

Father James Harrington, of the Paulist order, from New York, will be in charge of the mission.

Mass will be celebrated each morning at 6:45 o'clock, allowing students to attend and be out in time for early classes. On Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock Father Harrington will talk to the college men and Wednesday at 4:30 p.m. he will speak to the Spartan women.

In the evenings, at 8:30 o'clock, there will be Benediction and sermon. Tuesday's and Thursday's programs will be at Newman hall and Wednesday's at St. Patrick's church.

Golden Raiders Work for Loyola's Don Klosterman

Bronzan Drills Gridders on Pass Defense

By BILL WELDY

Contact work resumed for members of the varsity football squad yesterday as the Spartan equipment finally completed its round-trip from Moscow, Idaho.

The Golden Raiders scrimmaged against the junior varsity eleven with Gibby Mendonsa highlighting the drill by making several fine runs. Jerry Hamilton handled the quarterback position for the first team.

Definitely out of the Loyola game are linebackers Dick Bondellie and Bruce Halladay, and full-back Bob Amaral. Amaral re-injured his knee in the Idaho fracas and will be out for 10 days. Guard Vern Vallercamp did not suit up yesterday due to aching ears which troubled him during the airplane trips to and from Moscow.

Frank Morriss, who was allowed to return from Moscow via train because of his sinus trouble, had not arrived in San Jose as of yesterday afternoon.

Down Los Angeles way, Loyola coach, Jordan Oliver announced that he will be forced to do without the services of at least three stalwarts. Tackle Jack Menotti suffered a broken leg in the Santa Clara game and probably will be out for the rest of the season. Howard Lehman, also a tackle, suffered a concussion in the same game and is still hospitalized. The third wounded Lion is guard Maury Nipp who has an injured shoulder.

Coach Bob Bronzan will stress pass defense during the remainder of the week's workouts as Loyola's All-American candidate Don Klosterman will undoubtedly fill the air with aeriels Friday night.

Klosterman is currently the leading passer in the nation, while his favorite receiver, Fred Snyder, is third in national pass receiving statistics.

Lack of a running game has been the major weakness in the Lions' first four games, all of which have resulted in losses. Oliver's forces have bowed to San Diego Navy, COP, Florida and Santa Clara. Danny Seivert, Seivert, 170-lb. sophomore half-back, is the leading Lion runner. Seivert, along with several other sophomores, give Loyola a potential running game that may break loose anytime.

Spartan Jerry Perich, who only a few weeks ago was sent down to the J.V.'s, proved to be the strongest defensive man during the Idaho game. Perich will start along with Ray Poznekoff on the defensive flanks Friday night.

Another Spartan who looked good in the Idaho contest was George Porter, who probably will get the starting nod at one of the offensive tackles.

Tourney Deadline

Tennis Coach Ted Mumby announced that today is the last day to sign up for the fall quarter college tennis tournament. This afternoon at 3:30 o'clock is the deadline for all entries, Mumby emphasized.

Entry fee for the tourney, which is also a tryout for prospective varsity tennis material, is 50 cents. Official entry blanks can be obtained in the Men's gym.

SIDELINES

with ROY HURLBERT

Rumors are rolling that Santa Clara and USF are on their last football legs this season.

Santa Clara and San Francisco are having one heck of a time with the high cost of football living, as are the other little guys in the game, particularly the Jesuit schools.

The Saturday Evening Post blast against football by the Reverend Hunter Guthrie of Georgetown university last week has everybody wondering about the schools who are walking the tightrope. Georgetown, mother school of the Jesuits, suspended the game last year because of too much emphasis and too much finance.

Santa Clara and USF are Jesuit institutions with the same money problems as Georgetown and the other small Jesuits, Holy Cross, Boston college, Marquette, Detroit, Fordham and Loyola of Los Angeles. All face a struggle if they are to emerge in football's survival of the richest.

No Money—No Team

As "major" teams, the Mission Men and the Dons operate on slim budgets and they are out to make money in order to continue the game. But both schools, to date, are losing money and they don't have Fort Knox to fall back on. In this "business of football" you either tickle the turnstiles or else cancel the show.

Santa Clara and USF are at the crossroads. Either one and maybe both could join the graveyard already populated by Nevada and St. Mary's. But we hardly think the Broncos will toss in the towel. Maybe the Dons, but not Santa Clara.

The Rev. Herman J. Hauck, S.J., president of Santa Clara university, has stated that the university is definitely not thinking of dropping the sport at this time, and that reports to the contrary are absurd. He added that now was not the time to consider the problem from the financial angle, but later, when an accurate summation of profits and losses could be made.

Dennis Heenan, Santa Clara athletic manager, admits the Broncos are having trouble making ends meet, but he doesn't foresee a funeral this year. He wants us to know Santa Clara isn't going to let their bumps this year sour them any. Next year, Heenan indicates, the Broncos will meet Tulane, Kansas, Stanford, California, among others. No softies, again. And Coach Dick Gallagher will have a stronger team with more experience and sprinkled with a good sophomore crop. Heenan expresses no pessimism.

No Drop Here

Santa Clara got its reputation for taking on the tough ones without batting an eye. They have spirit behind their football, the like of which you don't find at most colleges and universities. The game over there is more than a matter of counting game receipts. We don't think Santa Clara will fold up on the gridiron.

USF Coach and Athletic Director Joe Kuharich isn't so hopeful. The Dons don't draw much in San Francisco. Next year they'll be weaker than a wet cat and their box-office appeal should drop to great depths. Their present schedule doesn't compare with Santa Clara's for caliber, either. Kuharich's recruiting history on the Hill-top in landing Matson and others doesn't please too many prospective opponents.

In other words, USF has a bad reputation with the men who make the schedules, Kuharich appears to be pouring it on Don opponents this fall hoping to land a lucrative bowl bid. USF needs the dough badly and the publicity. In the long run, the Dons stand to lose more than the Broncos. If someone has to quit, it probably will be the boys from the city by the Golden Gate.

Five Intramural Games Are Scheduled In Fraternity-Independent Leagues

Third day action in intramural football finds five games scheduled in the independent and inter-fraternity leagues.

In today's independent loop play Delta Upsilon meets Chi Pi Sigma, and Tiajuana A.C. plays Kappa Tau. The first tilt is a struggle of first game winners while the latter pits the two losers. On the inter-fraternity ledger is Pi Kappa Alpha and Lambda Chi Alpha; Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Phi Sigma Kappa; and Theta Chi and Sigma Nu. All the first named clubs won their opening encounters last Monday. Pi Kappa Alpha, with a 30 to 0 rout of Phi Sigma Kappa tops the list.

Other Monday scores included: IFL—Sigma Alpha Epsilon 6, Sigma Nu 0; Theta Chi 7, Lambda Chi Alpha 6. Independent league—Delta Upsilon 15, Tiajuana A.C. 12; and Chi Pi Sigma 6, Kappa Tau 0.

Frosh Drop 13-3 Water Match

Palo Alto high school tacked the second straight loss on the San Jose State college freshman water polo team yesterday in the winners' pool, 13-3.

The strong peninsula prep school had a substantial 8 to 1 halftime advantage over the Spartan frosh club who now have a one win and three loss record. The frosh scoring was split among forwards Barry Schuttler, Gene Broderick, and Dave Flood.

The frosh meet Burlingame high in a return match this Friday afternoon in Spartan pool. San Jose won the first tilt 6 to 5, at Burlingame.

Ad Frat Meets

Pledges of Gamma Alpha Chi, national professional honorary advertising fraternity for women, will be received into the organization tonight at ceremonies in the Spartan Daily office.

Health Is Orientation Subject

The third meeting this quarter of the freshman orientation class will be held tomorrow morning at 11:30 o'clock in the Morris Dailey auditorium, Dean of Men Stanley C. Benz announced yesterday.

Theme for tomorrow morning's session is "Health," he added. Miss Helen Dimmick, dean of women, will address the class on "Healthful Living Conditions." Miss Margaret Twombly, director of Student Health service, will speak on "The College Health Services," and Dr. J. C. Elder, dean of instruction, will talk about "A Philosophy of Personal Health."

Intercom System

"Our new intercommunication system will save countless hours," said Dr. Irene Palmer, head of the Women's Physical Education department, Tuesday.

The system has ten stations connecting Dr. Palmer's office with the other gym offices and the equipment areas.

Corporation taxes affect you, too!

1. Most of us figure that corporation taxes are someone else's problem. Maybe that's because we never pay them directly. Actually, we all pay some corporation taxes indirectly—in the price of things we buy. But there's more involved in corporation taxes than just paying them. Here's an example:

2. The average U. S. automobile uses 648 gallons of gasoline per year. So for each new car that is added to the American total, some American oil company has to invest about $521 in new facilities.* It takes approximately that much today in producing, refining and distributing equipment to supply the additional gasoline.

3. If we added only 2 or 3 cars to our American total each year this wouldn't present any problem. But last year we added almost 3 million. Naturally the oil companies, big and little, are always happy to build the new facilities that these new customers require. For it means new business.

*Sources: O. I. C., "Report on Supply and Demand of Oil Products in 1951"
A. P. I., "Petroleum Facts and Figures," 1950

4. At Union Oil, for example, we plan to spend $60 million in refinery improvements alone during the next 4 years. For our economists estimate that we will need 23% more capacity by 1960 to meet our customers' needs. But here's the rub: Traditionally, about 80% of American oil companies' expansion has been financed out of profits.

5. Today those profits are being taxed at such a high rate, this expansion may be seriously curtailed. In fact, it might be slowing down already. Certainly, if taxes are raised much higher, two things will happen: (1) There won't be enough profits left to finance additional facilities; (2) the earnings of oil companies—and all U.S. corporations—won't be high enough to attract new capital for the purpose.

6. Without either profits or new capital, expansion of all U.S. corporations will simply have to stop. If that happens the whole nation's economic growth will be stunted—and your standard of living (along with everyone else's) will steadily decline. So corporation taxes aren't just "someone else's problem." They affect each individual in the nation, too.
